HUBER+SUHNER: Change in the core shareholder structure

Metrohm AG informed the Board of Directors of HUBER+SUHNER AG today that it has sold its 10.6 % stake as shareholder of HUBER+SUHNER AG completely on the market in an accelerated bookbuild process. Metrohm AG, headquartered in Herisau, is an industrial company founded by Bertold Suhner almost 80 years ago. It accompanied HUBER+SUHNER for decades as a reliable and long-term oriented core shareholder.

After the sale of the stake by Metrohm AG, HUBER+SUHNER continues to have a strong core shareholder base. In addition to a number of long-standing shareholders below the notification threshold of 3 %, these include in particular EGS Beteiligungen AG with 9.2 %, Mrs. Silvia Hoffmann-Suhner with 6.2 %, and HUWA Finanz- und Beteiligungs AG with a share of 3.2 %.

The Board of Directors of HUBER+SUHNER would like to thank Metrohm AG for the extremely appreciated commitment over all the years.
